~ Yizkor ~

In Praise of Lives Now Gone

I used to be part of you belong to you
the extension of your being but now
you live within me
are the spark
of my consciousness

I say Kaddish for you
with you
as you
sing your melodies
speak your words
hearing your voice in mine and my eyes
too green have somehow started to reflect the blue of yours

I used to be part of you protected by your presence by your light
but now
the time is mine
and alone
I must be more than myself:
your child
has become your heir
has become you.

In Loving Memory of Our Dear Ones

“May the Father of Peace send peace to all who mourn,
and comfort all the bereaved among us.”

The Tradition of the Kaddish

The origins of the Kaddish are mysterious; angels are said to have brought it down from heaven...

It possesses wonderful power. Truly, if there is any bond strong enough to chain heaven to earth, it is this prayer. It keeps the living together, and forms a bridge to the mysterious realm of death. One might almost say that this prayer is the guardian of the people by whom alone it is uttered; therein lies the warrant of its continuance. Can a people disappear and be annihilated so long as a child remembers his parents?

Because this prayer does not acknowledge death, because it permits the blossom, which has fallen from the tree of humankind, to flower and develop again in the human heart, therefore it possesses sanctifying power.
